

Icarus Records/Vynilla Vinyl present: Ecila - 'The Sofa Managements'
(Releasedate: 24/05/2013)

Ecila's 'The Sofa Managements' is the second release for Ghent-based recordlabel Icarus Records, which aims to offer a platform to music that defies musical boundaries. The album is another joint release for Icarus Records and Vynilla Vinyl, after the critically acclaimed 'Tidal Motions' LP by Echo Beatty, and 'Dirty Beaches/Ravel Ravel', a 7-inch exclusively released for Record Store Day 2013.

'The Sofa Managements' will be officially released May 24th at the Icarus Night, where Ecila will share the stage with Raime (Blackest Ever Black).

Ecila

Originating from Belarus, Ecila (Sveta Shljachova) has been residing for many years in Belgium now. Together with life-long partner Nikita Chudjakov, she's been involved in different musical projects. They founded the breakcore-oriented STREFF and Elements Of Sci-fi amongst others. Last year also saw the release of 'Stories', under her alias Alice in Kosmoland.

'The Sofa Managements'

Ecila will present her debut album live at the forthcoming Icarus Night with Raime (24th of May) at Ghent's arthouse cinema Studio Skoop. The album will also be for sale for the first time then. The Sofa Managements includes both crackling electronica as well as vastly ambient atmospheres. An angelic quote by Jewish philosopher Moses Maimonides illustrates best where Ecila got her inspiration from:

"...This leads Aristotle in turn to the demonstrated fact that God, glory and majesty to Him, does not do things by direct contact. God burns things by means of fire; fire is moved by the motion of the sphere; the sphere is moved by means of a disembodied intellect, these intellects being the 'angels which are near to Him', through whose mediation the spheres [planets] move... thus totally disembodied minds exist which emanate from God and are the intermediaries between God and all the bodies [objects] here in this world. " Guide for the Perplexed II:4.

The Sofa Managements is produced by Sveta Shlachova (Ecila) and mastered by Nikita Chudjakov. The album will be released on a limited numbered edition of 200 copies (clear vinyl) including download code.

Label

Ecila's 'The Sofa Managements' is the second joint release for Icarus Records and Vynilla Vinyl (the label from the well-known record store with the same name). Previous releases on Vynilla Vinyl include work by Tiny Legs Tim, Love Like Birds and Amatorski. Icarus Records was founded in September 2012, offering a platform to music which that defies musical boundaries.

Both labels previously co-released Echo Beatty's 'Tidal Motions' LP and 'Dirty Beaches/Ravel Ravel', a 7-inch exclusively released for Record Store Day 2013.
