

Four years after their debut Circus, Ghent (Belgium) based band Sofar (previous name Little Elmo) release a new album Sofar. The band worked hard on their own sound and their new name expresses this evolution.

Sofar refers to 'The Sofar Channel', a layer in the abyss where sound moves in a special way. Soundwaves move slower but reach out much further. They play atmospheric and melancholic Indie music, pop noir balancing between light and dark, wandering between dream and action.

'Sofar combines the soft, dark moment of daydreaming with introverted, recalcitrant guitars. You hear the low key threat of The National with a romantic touch of Belle & Sebastian' (Isbells)

"Superb arranged songs with an own face (The Antler King)

Sofar is:

David Decraene: zang en toetsen
 Bram Gringhuis: gitaar en zang
 Pieter-Jan Van Den Berge: gitaar en zang
 Koen Degand: drums en percussie
 Hans Debucquoy: bas

www.sofar-music.com

Sofar on Facebook <https://www.facebook.com/SOFARgent>

www.icarus.fm

Screen print by Smeraldina-Rima

Artwork by Bless You

Soundcloud Streaming: <https://soundcloud.com/icarusrecords/sets/sofar/s-h6Mz0>

Youtube: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=PINK7TOybxg>

Radio, semi akoestisch live: <https://www.mixcloud.com/blessyoubel/icarus-live-session-38-sofar/>